The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday March 14. to Tuesday March 17. 1719.

Berne, March 15.

ON the 3d Inſtant the Sovereign Council of Two Hundred was aſſembled, to receive the Report made by the Committee appointed for Examining the Grievances of the City of Neufchatel, concerning the Prohibition of their Wines in this Canton. A Draught of an Anſwer to be made by this State to the King of Pruſſia's Letters, which were brought hither by the Deputies of Neufchatel, was read at the ſame Time and approved of. It tends to juſtify their Conduct in relation to the Proceedings with thoſe of Neufchatel, and ſets forth the Reaſons this State has for not agreeing to what his Pruſſian Majeſty demanded of them, concerning the Commerce of the Wines of Neufchatel. The Abbot of St. Gall having complained to the Two Cantons of Zurich and Berne of the Diſobedience of ſome of his Subjects of Tockenburg, and the latter having likewiſe accuſed to the ſaid Cantons their Prince of an Infraction of the late Treaty of Baden; this Canton has appointed a Committee to examine the Complaints of both Parties, and to make a Report to the Sovereign Council; whereupon it is hoped ſome Means will be found, in concert with the Canton of Zurich, to accommodate this Matter. This new Diſpute is looked upon here to proceed only from the Stubbornneſs of ſome Inhabitants of Tockenburg, who not being contented with the late Treaty of Pacification, try to unravel all again, and lay hold of every little Accident to obtain their Ends. This State has been taken up lately with making ſeveral new Regulations for preventing the carrying of Money out of the Country. For this End ſome Members of the Sovereign Council have propoſed to forbid the Importation of ſeveral foreign Commodities, as Tea, Coffee, &c. and to incourage all Sorts of Manufactures in this Canton. The whole has ſince been referred to a Committee, which is to make their Report in a few Days. It is adviſed from ſeveral Parts of France, that divers Regiments of Berne, and other Swiſs Troops in the Service of that Crown, were broke up from their Quarters to march to the Frontiers of Spain. They write from Milan of the 7th Inſtant, that M. Colloredo the new Governour of that Dutchy, was arrived in that Capital, and had been ſaluted with a general Diſcharge of the Artillery: The Deputies of the ſeveral Councils went as far as Vaprio to meet him.

Hague, March 23. Count Morville, Ambaſſadour of the moſt Chriſtian King to the States General, made his Publick Entry this Day. His Excellency went from hence this Morning to Delft, where he was received on the Part of the States by M. Heſſels de Dinter, Steward and Maſter of the Ceremonies to their High Mightineſſes, and complimented by the Magiſtrates of the Town, who entertained him at Dinner; after which he came in a Yacht belonging to the States, to the Bridge called Hornbrug, where the two Deputies of the States, M. Velters and M. Peſters, were ready to receive him at his Landing in the firſt Coach of State, the Ambaſſadour placing himſelf in the Back part of the Coach, and the two Deputies ſitting backwards over-againſt him. From thence they proceeded in the following Order: Firſt their High Mightineſſes Steward and Maſter of the Ceremonies, in a Coach drawn by Four Horſes: Then his Excellency and the Two Deputies, in a Coach drawn by Six Horſes, the States Meſſengers walking on both Sides: Next the Ambaſſadour's Gentleman of the Horſe on Horſeback, followed by Four Pages cloathed in Velvet laced with Silver, likewiſe on Horſeback: Then Two Swiſs and Sixteen Footmen walking along before his Excellency's firſt Coach, which was univerſally admired for the exquiſite Contrivance of its Painting and Carving, being empty, and drawn by Eight black Horſes with rich Furniture; followed by his 2d and 3d Coaches, in which ſate the Ambaſſadour's Gentlemen, the one being drawn by ſix grey Horſes, and the other by as many pie-ball'd Horſes richly harneſſed. A long Train of near 100 Coaches belonging to the principal Members and Officers of the State cloſed the Proceſſion. Having paſſed in this Order through the principal Streets of this Place, the Ambaſſadour alighted at the Houſe called Prince Maurice's, into which he was conducted by the two Deputies, who went from thence to notifie to the States General his Excellency's Arrival. Their High Mightineſſes deputed eight of their Members to compliment the Ambaſſadour on their Part; Baron de Welderen from the Province of Geldern, M. Valkenier and Nieuwburg from Holland, M. de Spanbroek from Zealand, M. Peſters from Utrecht, M. Vegelin de Claerbergen from Friſeland, M. Eekhold from Over Yſſel, and M. Tamminga from Groningen. His Excellency was ſplendidly entertained that Evening by the ſaid Deputies, and is to remain in the ſame Houſe to be entertained and attended there on the Part of the States, and at their Expence for three Days; after which he is to be conducted with the ſame Ceremony to his publick Audience of their High Mightineſſes. Orders have been ſent to the ſeveral Admiralties of this Republick, purſuant to the Memorials preſented to the States by the Miniſters of Great Britain and France, to renew and enforce their Prohibitions againſt carrying Contraband Goods to Spain. M. Ganſinot, Miniſter of the Elector of Bavaria, received this Morning an Expreſs with the News, that Prince Philip Maurice, who on the 14th Inſtant was choſe Biſhop of Paderborn, was on the 21ſt likewiſe elected Biſhop of Munſter, which he immediately notified to the States General.

Admiralty-